

Coiste Gnó Updates

Uachtarán:

- Oireachtas Submission on Leaving Certificate Reform:
 - I was invited by the Joint Committee on Education, Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation and Science to send a 5 page submission on Leaving Certificate Reform, highlighting six key areas of:
 - Assessment Options.
 - Key Subject Areas and Digital Learning.
 - Access, Equality and Wellbeing Supports.
 - Higher and Further Education Requirements, Vocational Options and Career Paths.
 - Irish Language and Irish Medium Education.
 - International Evidence and Best Practice.
 - The DRAFT submission can be viewed here and is due for submission on the 6th of October.
 - Following this invitation, I was invited to present to the Committee on Tuesday, October 5th. The opening statement of the ISSU can be viewed here.
- IBSA Helpline - Trigger Warning:
 - I met with a representative from Kerry Rape Crisis Centre to discuss collaboration on the helpline and collaborating on student council resources.
 - Confirmation was given that we will present the idea of the helpline to the national group of RCCs in November, date TBD.
- I met with the Sinn Féin spokesperson for education, Donnchadh Ó' Laoghaire to discuss our shared goals for education and to propose meeting bi-monthly alongside the Leas-Uachtarán, Education Officer and Uachtarán Oinigh.
- I spoke at the Mayo Tusla Youth Committee conference on 'Youth Participation' alongside the RLSO.
- Department of the Taoiseach Shared Island Dialogue on Education:
 - I was invited by the Department of the Taoiseach to speak on a panel at the Shared Island Dialogue on Education event: 'Learning From Each Other: The Future of Education on a Shared Island'
 - The panel was titled 'In-Depth View: Innovative Connections on a Shared Island' and consisted of a discussion with younger representatives from across the island on their expectations of education and other opportunities for connection with each other on an all-island basis and was opened by Minister Norma Foley.
